Docket No.

Petition for Action on Conditions of Pretrial Release

COMES NOW Daniel M. Manning, PRETRIAL SERVICES OFFICER presenting an official report upon the conduct of defendant Anna Munoz, who was placed under pretrial release supervision by the Honorable U.S. Magistrate Judge Mary K. Dimke sitting in the court at Richland, Washington, on the 28th day of June, 2018 under the following conditions:

Condition #1: Defendant shall not commit any offense in violation of federal, state or local law. Defendant shall advise the supervising Pretrial Services Officer and defense counsel within one business day of any charge, arrest, or contact with law enforcement. Defendant shall not work for the United States Government or any federal or state law enforcement agency, unless Defendant first notifies the supervising Pretrial Services Officer in the captioned manner.

RESPECTFULLY PRESENTING PETITION FOR ACTION OF COURT FOR CAUSE AS FOLLOWS:

(If short insert here; if lengthy write on separate sheet and attach.)

Violation #1: The defendant is alleged to be in violation of her conditions of pretrial supervision in the Eastern District of Washington by being charged with Animal Cruelty in the 2nd Degree, Benton County District Court case number J18Y06306.

Conditions of release were reviewed with the Defendant on June 29, 2018. She acknowledged an understanding of her conditions, which included condition number 1.

The defendant reported that she found out about these charges on December 20, 2018, when she had contact with law enforcement due to her son running away from home. The defendant stated she does take care of some livestock in the Finley, Washington, area, and that one of the cows had died due to illness. The defendant reported that she is out at the cattle farm every day, providing food and water to the animals and has been trying to do the best she can with the animals. The defendant further explained that her husband would usually help take care of the animals, but this responsibility has fallen to her since he is now incarcerated.

The defendant was incarcerated for this charge on December 21, 2018, and was released on her own recognizance on December 27, 2018. The defendant states she will be taking these charges to trial as she denies any wrong doing on her part. The defendant's next court date in Benton County is on March 20, 2019.

After reviewing the police report, and due to the defendant having already served 6 days in custody for this charge, it is respectfully recommended the Court take no action at this time for this violation.

PRAYING THAT THE COURT WILL ORDER NO ACTION AT THIS TIME
